Monopoly on Virtue.....

One day, the famous Bishop Fulton Sheen, was asked to preach in a mid-western town. When he alighted from the train there was no one to meet him, but on the platform there was this little boy.

The Bishop asked the little boy where the town hall was, for it was there that he was to preach.

The little boy said "I will show you" so he picked up the Bishops bags and they began to walk together.

As they walked along, the little boy asked the Bishop what he was going to do at the town hall. The Bishop answered "I am going to show people the way to heaven. " "Gosh" the little boy said, "how are you going to show people the way to heaven when you don't even know where the town hall is?"

So often, we think that our way is the only way and that our belief, culture and language is often above that of others. The call of the gospel is to encourage people to grow towards God in a way that is best for the, not imposing my views or my attitudes or even my beliefs on them.

IT'S GOOD TO UNDERSTAND AND ACCEPT THAT WE DON'T HAVE A MONOPOLY ON VIRTUE.

Peace..... Dave
